THE General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, realizing the want of music adapted to the use of Sabbath Schools, at the meeting held in Cambridge, Ohio, in 1878, appointed a committee "to prepare and publish a book of selections from the Psalms set to music."

The committee thus appointed proceeded to do the work assigned, and reported to the Assembly that met in New Wilmington, Pa., in 1879. This Assembly directed the committee to publish their book "without any unnecessary delay."

This book is now offered to the public.

This work has not been done without continued labor, and earnest prayer for divine direction.

In making these selections from the Book of Psalms, it is not to be inferred that some parts of these Psalms were regarded as being more excellent than others, but only that they seem to be better adapted for use in Sabbath Schools. Many other selections might have been made with equal propriety, but this would have made the book larger than is necessary.

Music has been selected from almost every available source, and special care has been taken in its adaptation, so that the music shall express the sentiment of the Psalm to which it is set.

The best pieces of the old music, with which the church has long been familiar, have been retained. A fair proportion of new music has also been selected from the wide range of recent publications.

Thanks are due to D. C. Cook, Judge C. C. Converse, W. T. Wiley, J. W. Bischoff, and others who have generously granted us permission to use pieces of which they are the authors and owners. These pieces cannot be used by others without like permission.

It is not claimed that this work is perfect, but for the present it is the best that we are able to offer; and thus we cast our bread upon the waters, hoping to find it after many days.

No. 22. WHY STAND AFAR.

E. M. CLARK.

Prayerfully.

1 My God, my God, why me for-sake? O why to me no ans-wer make?
 2 Our fa-thers put their trust in thee, They trust-ed and thou didst them free;
 3 "He trusts in God; let God de-fend And save him since he is his friend."

In deep dis-tress I cry, O Lord, Why stand a-far—nor help af-ford?
 To thee they cried, de-liv'-rance came; They hoped, and were not put to shame.
 Thou mad'st me first the light to see, In in-fant years to hope in thee.

All day, my God, I cry in vain, Nor can I in the night re-frain:
 But I a worm, as no man prized, Reproached of men, by all des-pised;
 From birth de-pend-ent on thy power, Thou art my God from childhood's hour;

But thou art ho-ly, who dost dwell A-mid the songs of Is-ra-el.
 All shake the head, they mock and gaze, Each scorn-ful lip con-tempt be-trays.
 Be not far off: for trou-ble nears, And none to give me help ap-pears.

 2 When thou didst say, Seek ye my face, My heart did thus re - ply:
 3 Far from me hide not thou thy face; Put not a - way from thee

Up - on me al - so mer - cy have, And do thou an - swer me.
 Thy face, O Lord, a - bove all things, For - e - ver seek will I.
 Thy ser - vant in thy wrath; thou hast A help - er been to me.

CHORUS.
 O God, my Sa - viour, leave me not, And nev - er me for - sake:

Though pa - rents both should me de - sert, Je - ho - vah will me take.

1 O come, and let us sing to God, The rock of our sal-va-tion laud;
2 The vast deep pla-ces of the land, And strength of hills are in his hand;

Let us in psalms our tongues employ; Be-fore him render thanks with joy;
The sea is his, he gave it birth, His hands prepared the sol-id earth:

The Lord is great whose praise we sing, O come, and let us wor-ship now,
The Lord is great whose praise we sing, The Lord is great whose praise we sing,
O come, and let us wor-ship now, O come, and let us wor-ship now,

1 From the depths do I in - voke thee, O Je - ho - vah, give an ear;
 2 Lord, if thou shouldst mark trans-gres sions, Who, be-fore thee, Lord, shall stand?
 3 For Je - ho - vah I am wait - ing, And my hope is in his word;
 4 For the Lord my soul is wait - ing, More than watch-ers in the night,

To my voice be thou at - ten - tive, And my sup - pli-ca - tion hear.
 But with thee there is for-give - ness, That thy name may fear com-mand.
 In his word of promise giv - en, Yea, my soul waits for the Lord.
 More than they for morning watch-ing, Watch-ing for the morn-ing light.

CHORUS.

Is - rael hope thou in Je - ho - vah, Mercies great are found with him;
 He a-bound - ing in re - demp-tion, Is - r'el will from sin re-deem.
